THE STUDY WORKSHOPS

The Krishnamurti Study Centre Sahyadri, Pune welcomes you to one or more of its Study Workshops during June 2009 – March 2010.

It is a unique opportunity to study the 'Teachings' intensively around various themes. The participants are not rushed through a chain of programmes but have a very relaxed daily routine giving them ample time and leisure to be with themselves, to reflect upon their own lives, to go for long walks, to observe nature and to interact with one another. An atmosphere of peace and freedom pervades throughout the workshops.

The programme includes silence session, Krishnamurti's video talks, group dialogues, nature walks and self-study periods. The whole programme is in English (unless mentioned otherwise). Special study material according to respective themes is given to the participants.

Special workshops for a group of ten or more interested persons can be arranged in English, Marathi or Hindi around various themes of interest on different dates. Workshops for teachers, students and corporates can also be organised separately. Individuals are welcome for study retreats during the time gap in between the two workshops.
